ide Association Requires New Commissioner

The Local Girl Guide Association for LaSalle, River Canard and Amherstburg announced last week they are looking for a volunteer to fill the post of District Commissioner.

The position is now held by Mrs. Harry D. Bondy, of LaSalle, but she has stated that she will resign from the office on January 31, and is looking for someone to replace her starting February 1.

While at the present time, the local association includes the territory of LaSalle, River Canard and Amherstburg; River Canard and Amherstburg, River Canard will, beginning with the first of next year, be transferred to the district of Sandwich West, alleviating a considerable burden on the next commissioner. Full information and details may be obtained from Mrs. Bondy, by phoning 2-4843.
